

Écris en lettres les nombres mentionnés dans ce dialogue.

At the bakery:

- Good morning, can I help you?

- Hello! I'd like a cake, please.

- What would you like?

- A big one for 8

(... eight)

people. It's for my father's birthday. How much is this one?

- It's 22 (twenty-two) pounds.

- And that chocolate cake over there?

- 15 (fifteen) pounds.

- OK, I'll take the chocolate cake. I need some candles too.

- How many?

- 39 (thirty-nine). No, no, 40 (forty) now.

- So that's 21 (twenty-one) pounds, boy! Here you are!

Écris les nombres en chiffres.

1. two hundred and seventy-eight → ... 278

2. four hundred and twenty-five → ... 425

3. five hundred → ... 500

4. seven hundred and ninety-two → ... 792

5. eight hundred and five → ... 805

3

EXPLICATION

Attention à l'adjectif ordinal twentieth : le y de twenty devient ie.

- 4
1. What's the second letter of the word animal? N
 2. What's the first letter of the word umbrella? U
 3. What's the third letter of the word game? M
 4. What's the first letter of the word bed? B
 5. What's the fifth letter of the word garden? E
 6. What's the eighth letter of the word November? R

The mysterious word: